Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

The reason we are filing this return late is because we were unaware that we had to file each year on form 990. We thought that if the organization only received so much or little in funds each year that we only had to do sort of a check-in every few years. We now since realized this was not the case and have been filing for each year consecutively after we finish the prior one to submit them all, so that by the time year 2021 comes we will have the ball rolling going forward and will not file late again. We do apologize for our ignorance on the matter, but we are working quickly to rectify the matter and provide all necessary information required.

Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

RAX Worldwide's primary exempt purpose is to fundraise enough monetary support or receive donations to sponsor giveaways, contribute to job creation, community development, fundraisers, special events, budget building, expansion and to incorporate programs as part of our effort such as Trash is Treasure, Disaster Relief/Relocator, Refining Generations - Etiquette Classes, and Expansion League. RAX is also seeking and challenging others in an effort to pay off Sallie Mae (Student Loan Debt) and to offer grants, scholarships and fellowships to students and those seeking higher education and learning.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

insightful picking up around the neighborhood can be. RAX Worldwide once again hosted another community clean-up day in the city of Port Allen, Louisiana. The Board Chair and other board members of RAX Worldwide decided that it would be a great random act of kindness to take the time out each month, each third Saturday or Sunday for 3 hours, and clean-up the community in some part of Port Allen that may have been left to its own devices, or just remiss by community leaders to remove or clean. RAX Worldwide institutes this as a practice until it is seen that Port Allen is no longer in need of a clean-up because it has become a practice. The only way the event does not take place is if weather prohibits our efforts. Three of our board members, children in tow, canvassed the community for 3 hours. We stuck with the designated meeting spot of N 14th Street where we would then move to a different portion of the neighborhood since the other side had been done. If necessary, we would do a quick sweep of the other streets. We provided bags, gloves, and water. Everyone tackled the event with humility, pride and revelations of their own at the end of it all. After 3 hours, everyone began making their way back to their cars. Much sweating had taken place and a lot of water was drank as the sun is always spot-on, especially in Louisiana. The Port Allen Community Clean-Up Day was successful and we thanked each and every person who volunteered their time to our nonprofit's cause.

Second Program Service Accomplishments Description

efforts African Americans have contributed throughout history so that it could be displayed in an artistic way while also giving meaningful insight in a family-fun-and-friendly capacity so that individuals could enjoy a good music and knowledge mix. RAX Worldwide is committed to random acts of kindness so it was a pleasure being able to bring so many smiles by giving history, beads, and candy. People from all over the community poured into the streets and around the park where the event was camped at. They stood out to support everyone in the train as one by one schools, organization, clubs, bands, and many others participated in this special occasion. Afterwards, food was catered by a member of the community for those who participated in the parade train. The parade was a success with much laughter and happy hearts.

| Youth Day At The Capitol RAX Worldwide was approached by My Life Louisiana in an effort to present a Youth Day At The Capitol. This was an event centered around youth awareness - children's mental health and other issues impacting the youth in today's society. RAX Worldwide agreed to be a part of the concerted effort that would be among us along with other organizations such as Mark Anthony's Catering, Goodwill, Movement 225, Family and Youth Service Center and others. The event lasted for roughly four hours where hundreds came out in support of mental health in youth. Our board chair was in attendance himself to help assist and volunteer for the event's duration. Food was catered for those in attendance by Mark Anthony's Catering. The event was a success and RAX Worldwide enjoyed working alongside other organizations for such an inspirational and great cause. | 0 | | 80 |

We were approached by the football team after they had seen our efforts to clean in Port Allen, Louisiana and how great the community looked afterwards. Their coach decided it would be a great opportunity for them to learn volunteerism and team skills while giving back to their community. Together, a couple of RAX Worldwide Board Members along with the team paired up to cleanse the neighborhoods and bags and bags of trash were collected on the backs of trucks. The clean-up took place for 3 hours, just as our others were to keep in with our current method of attacking this particular community issue. After 3 hours, everyone began making their way back to their cars. Much sweating had taken place and a lot of water was drank as the sun is always spot-on, especially in Louisiana. The Port Allen Community Clean-Up Day was successful and we thanked each and every person who volunteered their time to our nonprofit's cause. | 0 | | 100 |
| Community Clean Up Day In May 2016, RAX Worldwide once again hosted another community clean-up day in the city of Port Allen, Louisiana. The Board Chair and other board members of RAX Worldwide decided that it would be a great random act of kindness to take the time out each month, each third Saturday or Sunday for 3 hours, and clean-up the community in some part of Port Allen that may have been left to its own devices, or just remiss by community leaders to remove or clean. RAX Worldwide institutes this as a practice until it is seen that Port Allen is no longer in need of a clean-up because it has become a practice. The only way the event does not take place is if weather prohibits our efforts. Three of our board members along with some of Capitol High School's Football team, coach and some volunteers canvased the community for 3 hours. We stuck with the designated meeting spot of N 14th Street where we would then move to a different portion of the neighborhood since the other side had been done. It was such an amazing experience that even someone passed by in their truck and asked if their was anywhere | 0 | | 80 |

close to park because he just liked to see what we were about. We provided bags, gloves, and water. Everyone tackled the event with humility, pride and revelations of their own at the end of it all. After 3 hours, everyone began making their way back to their cars. | Expungement Event X Block Expungement Services, a program of RAX Worldwide, hosted an Expungement Event at the St. Gabriel Community Center in 2016, in St. Gabriel, Louisiana. After having our first event in Baton Rouge, many people began reaching out to our nonprofit to figure out how they could receive help. Some individuals were unable to make it to the event, others found out about it to late, and some left the event because they had previously scheduled events that they had to attend. We realized at this point that many individuals still had a pressing concern and need for expungements. In 2015, we embarked on a quest to host an annual expungement event and move it around the state of Louisiana so that we could assist as many individuals as possible, en masse, whilst also being a facilitator between attorney and those in need of having their records expunged. In 2016, we wanted to bring to the public another event. We were able to speak with the mayor of St. Gabriel through one of his assistants and together we focused on how we could make the day a success once again. We partnered with various private attorneys, all with African American practices, to further aid in the efforts to promote expansion of successful minority businesses. We informed him of our past events and he only requested by the end of it that we provide them with a report and statistics detailing what the current state of affairs was for St. Gabriel based on the outcome and past data available. For this function, like others, we also brought in vendors. Overall, hundreds of individuals came out for assistance. Our events are such that they run between 9/10:00am - 2:00pm. We close our doors at 2:00. Anyone who has come inside before then will receive assistance so long as they stay. Even with hundreds of people in attendance, our lawyers were finished no later than 5:00pm. No one was turned away and individuals who could not make it were told how they could receive assistance going forward. For individuals who were hungry this time around because one of the concerns became people's stomach's and them having to leave to get food, but not wanting to lose their place in line, we decided to have onsite eating available to be purchased at an affordable price. If they did not want this option, they were still, of course, available. However, all lawyers who assist and Board Members in attendance all receive lunches with a drink provided by RAX Worldwide. We appreciate their commitment to helping us facilitate a much needed change for individuals still stigmatized by records that keep them from obtaining careers and many don't know their options. The events to this date have been successful with no one being unruly at the events, and individuals waiting until called to be assisted with their matters. We keep all names and identities or any identifying information confidential and we do not disclose any information to third parties or to the public. The only information that is forwarded or disclosed are the names and numbers of lawyers that individuals can contact when they reach out to us for assistance. To keep these events going we solicit donations from the public with a goal to fundraise in the future and collaborate with city and state officials to help expedite the process for low level offenses and offenses that are 20 years or older. We partnered with various private attorneys, all with African American practices, to further aid in the efforts to promote expansion of successful minority businesses. | 5,000 | 60 |

| Sweet Olive Cemetery Clean-Up RAX Worldwide hosted a 6 hour cemetery clean-up at Sweet Olive Cemetery in Baton Rouge, Louisiana from 6am - 12:00 noon after being called by many individuals who had seen us doing community clean-ups via social media. (shambles) that Sweet Olive Cemetery, the oldest historic black cemetery/burial site in Louisiana (from what we've been told), was in and that we should go and check it out and see about getting it cleaned out. After going personally and inspecting and taking a visual recording, we were shocked and choked up to see graves open with brambles hanging about, with headstones removed, caskets cracked with bones exposed and just foliage and brush running thicket throughout. At once, RAX Worldwide reached out to find who had control of the cemetery and found it was W.T. Winnfield in Baton Rouge. We reached out to W.T. and was told how to go to his office and fill out the information with his secretary to get the site together for a cleaning. He said then he would approve us going inside the cemetery to do a clean-up. After filling out the paperwork and submitting everything, W. T. approved us to go inside the cemetery to clean-up and so we set a date. RAX set out immediately through social media to spread the word and make it an event so that we could enlist the help of volunteers via social media and just put out the call in general. We knew we would need mass help if we wanted to get at least 10% of the cemetery cleared that day. We then reached out to MidCity Redevelopment Alliance so that we could obtain some of the necessary equipment to go and clear the mess up inside the cemetery, we needed real equipment, trying to pull weeds was not going to do. The YCP or Louisiana National Guard Youth Challenge Program also came out with a busload of young men to help clear the mess inside the cemetery walls flooding out for others to see from the road. One of Baton Rouge's very popular weather anchors, Jay Grimes, also came out to help assist along with war veterans who have been wanting to see the mess cleared because it is in constant disarray. We put out a call for volunteers via social media and the news outlet and it immediately gained traction. Overall for this event RAX Worldwide raised $500.00 through GoFundMe.com fundraiser, public donations at the event for individuals who gave their time and others just wanting to give how they can if they couldn't assist. The money then went towards purchasing equipment such as weed eaters, shears, branch cutters and other types of debris and bramble remover for the event so that individuals who came out could participate. Midcity Redevelopment Alliance and W.T. also had a few tools we were able to get running for those who volunteered for this great effort in Baton Rouge. It also went towards making sure volunteers had cold waters and gatorades for the event and bags of chips and snacks to eat when they wanted to take a break. Capitol City Produce of Baton Rouge donated fruits and waters to the event as well.

| Empowerment Expo - Expungements & More New Light Community center reached out to RAX Worldwide to see if we would be able to help them with finding lawyers for their empowerment expo, a community event. RAX Worldwide sent only lawyers to the event because we were already previously engaged to do a cemetery clean-up at Sweet Olive in Baton Rouge the very same day. The organization that reached out to us would be holding their EXPO early and it would not be during the same hours RAX normally schedules an expungement event. They heard about our traction in the community and wanted to enlist our aid. Our lawyers are already familiar with the process and as long as they have the necessary paperwork in hand and obtain the names of individuals in attendance, we can still get the data together for our events. The lawyers were there to assist individuals in the same capacity as if it were any other RAX Worldwide Expungement Event. They were provided with tables and comfortable seating along with meals being provided. | 0 | 50 |
