Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

We apologize for our delay in filing our taxes. I was unaware from what I read that we had to file each year, I thought it was more of a check in and update type of situation. There is no excuse, but when you know better, then you do better. As such, I am filing right now for each year up until the end of 2019, and from now on our returns from our nonprofit will be in on schedule with the necessary information compiled and completed.

X Block Expungement Services offers this service as a way limiting complications for individuals who may fill out applications themselves and forfeit funds for inadequate information. All information provided to us and the lawyers is strictly confidential and is not given to any third party or special interest groups. We move them around the state of Louisiana each year to reach individuals who may not be able to travel due to certain restrictions placed on them locally and/or federally and from an inability to travel due to limited access to vehicles. Our goal is to host them nationally on a bigger scale.
