Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

The reason we are filing this return late is because we were unaware that we had to file each year on form 990. We thought that if the organization only received so much or little in funds each year that we only had to do sort of a check-in every few years. We now since realized this was not the case and have been filing for each year consecutively after we finish the prior one to submit them all, so that by the time year 2021 comes we will have the ball rolling going forward and will not file late again. We do apologize for our ignorance on the matter, but we are working quickly to rectify the matter and provide all necessary information required.

Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

RAX Worldwide's primary exempt purpose is to fundraise enough monetary support or receive donations to sponsor giveaways, contribute to job creation, community development, fundraisers, special events, budget building, expansion and to incorporate programs as part of our effort such as Trash is Treasure, Disaster Relief/Relocator, Refining Generations - Etiquette Classes, and Expansion League. RAX is also seeking and challenging others in an effort to pay off Sallie Mae (Student Loan Debt) and to offer grants, scholarships and fellowships to students and those seeking higher education and learning.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

volunteered there quite often. On one such day the Board Secretary was asked by the principal if the Board Chair would mind writing a song for their leadership program at the school. She knew that the Board Chair was already a lyricist and emcee, along with having a live band and she wanted to see if it was possible to put something together with the children. The Board Chair took on the project with excitement and vigor and within about a week he had found the perfect song, Iggy Azalea's "I'm So Fancy", written it up to the full instrumental and then gave his final copy to the school's principal along with a great idea. Since we are all about random acts of kindness and part of our goal is to give back to the youth in a way that enhances their mentality, feeds their soul (and stomach) and allows them the ability to self-actualize by spreading leadership awareness in the youth, we found that music can be an essential medium and fundamental tool/resource through educational dialogue when coupled with teachers and staff who help working programs to flourish within the schools. The Board Chair decided that he would solicit donations for our youth program, Expansion League and RAX Professionals, in which our organization would be able to record the children on record singing the lyrics that were written along with a video recording. The Board Chair immediately set out to obtain the necessary funding. Along with a couple of board members coming out-of-pocket for the expense to record the song, we did receive a public donation. The setup and equipment was then brought to the school by the record producer inside a T-Building and the children who were chosen to record for parts of the video were asked to come in and get their parts put down on wax, it only took one day. This was their first experience ever professionally recording music and they were so excited. The record producer was compensated in full and later that week we were given our full copy of the song recording mixed and mastered.

Second Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

After speaking with the principal and staff, and after the principal obtained necessary permissions and consents from city, school and local officials as well as from parents, RAX Worldwide was given the go ahead to bring in the video producers. The Board Chair reached out to professional videographers and began to put together how the video would come together. Over a 2 day period, the children who recorded the song on their individual parts were pulled from class to record their parts on the song. Other parts of the video included the whole school being there, so all children were able to participate in either the cafeteria, the gym or in some shot throughout the video. The song was a smash hit with the whole school so much so that the principal did a Grand Revealing of the video at the Port Allen Community Center for the whole school to see for the first time on screen, and then they later did a surprise award's ceremony for the Board Members of RAX Worldwide for putting together the production and making their vision of leadership come to life through song and video. We were treated to a feast afterwards and appreciate the collaboration with the school and videographers along with the parent's support and community support for the video which is still being shared via Youtube and has over 50,000 views at the following link: <https://youtu.be/tmZ9IJv3p44>.

that teachers are on the front lines, making sure our kids' education are thriving and they also take home their emotional attachments to kids who have melted their hearts. I'm sure it doesn't get easier year after year helping children to flourish and then they move on to another stage in life. RAX decided to show our appreciation and engage in our mission by hosting a Teacher Appreciation Day for the teachers of Port Allen Elementary school. RAX Worldwide came out and cooked for teachers while also keeping them entertained and anxious with the great aroma's permeating from the grill and pot outside. Overall, the day was a great success and the teachers and other staff members left that day feeling well-fed and happy. They let us know how much they enjoyed the food, the appreciation and the experience.

Another Expungment Event X Block Expungement Services, a program of RAX Worldwide, hosted Another Expungement Event at the Port Allen Commiunity Center in 2015. After having our first event in Baton Rouge, many people began reaching out to our nonprofit to figure out how they could receive help. Some individuals were unable to make it to the event, others found out about it to late, and some left the event because they had previously scheduled events that they had to attend. We realized at this point that many individuals still had a pressing concern and need for expungements. In 2015, we embarked on a quest to host an annual expungement event and move it around the state of Louisiana so that we could assist as many indiviuals as possible, en masse, whilst also being a facilitator between attorney and those in need of having their records expunged. We gained so much traction that this time around East Baton Rouge Parish District Attorney for the State of Louisiana Hillar Moore endorsed our efforts to take on this challenge. We collaborated with Louis A Martinet Society once again to facilitate the expungement event. We also brought in vendors who were avaiallbe for varying sorts of information. Overall, hundreds of individuals came out for assistance. Our events are such that they run between 9/10:00am - 2:00pm. We close our doors at 2:00. Anyone who has come inside before then will receive assistance so long as they stay. Even with hundreds of people in attendance, our lawyers were finished no later than 5:00pm. No one was turned away and individuals who could not make it were told how they could receive assistance going forward. The events to this date have been successful with no one being unruly at the events, and individuals waiting until called to be assisted with their matters. We keep all names and identities or any identifying information confidential and we do not disclose any information to third parties or to the public. The only information that is forwarded or disclosed are the names and numbers of lawyers that individuals can contact when they reach out to us for assistance. To keep these events going we solicit donations from the public with a goal to fundraise in the future and collaborate with city and state officials to help expedite the process for low level offenses and offenses that are 20 years or older.	0		50
E.X.P.O. Port Allen In 2015, RAX Worldwide hosted an E. X. P. O to fundraise for our nonprofit. This was an outside event geared towards having fun with friends, family and neighborhood and showcasing various businesses to the public. At the event these vendors,were able to showcase their brand while also giving attendees a sample of their products, services or foods being offered. We brought in the atmosphere and sweet homemade lemonade (family recipe), and the vendors brought the significant portion of entertainment and good times. Music was in the air and individuals were able to sample authentic homemade, outside cooked, smoked jambalaya, they could also get some relaxation away from the heat and get a massage, or if they wanted to stop and have a beautiful moment with the family they could get pictures taken with photos being printed on the spot. Many businesses came out that day to make it a success and we appreciate those who contributed to the vision by coming out. Everyone who came was smiles and the event was added to our list of successful random acts of kindness. On top of that, the lemonade was complimented on to the point of individuals asking what we did differently to make it so amazing and fresh lemonade tasting. We told them, we just use quality minimal ingredients, we believe less is better. Overall, we were able to raise $350.00 at the event. The event was a win-win for the public, businesses and our nonprofit.	0		0
Community Clean-Up Day For the first time ever, RAX Worldwide hosted a community clean-up day in the city of Port Allen, Louisiana. The Board Chair and other board members of RAX Worldwide decided that it would be a great random act of kidness to take the time out each month, each third Saturday or Sunday for 3 hours, and clean-up the community in some part of Port Allen that may have been left to its own devices, or just remiss by community leaders to remove or clean. RAX Worldwide institutes this as a practice until it is seen that Port Allen is no longer in need of a clean-up because it has become a practice. During our first ever clean-up, after promotiong for social media, 3 of our board members were able to attend along with 4 people from the community. The designated meeting spot is N 14th Street Park in Port Allen. From there volunteers are given bags, gloves, and water. Everyone tackled the event with humility, pride and	0		100 revelations of their own at the end of it all. After 3 hours, everyone began making their way back to their cars. Much sweating had taken place and a lot of water was drank as the sun was spot-on. However, everyone came back smiling and with a new found appreciation and awareness for community cleaning. After having seen the streets we were walking go from having trash on the side of the road, bottles in yards, papers in gutters, and glass where kids could easily cut themselves if attempting to have fun outside to cleared of any debris, the whole mood was excited astonishment. The Port Allen Community Clean-Up Day was successful and we thanked each and every person who volunteered their time to our nonprofit's cause.

Christmas Caroling In December of 2015, RAX Worldwide collaborated with True Worshipers Christian Center to surprise the community of Port Allen with Christmas Caroling. We sang in the streets of Port Allen, caroling to neighbors and even stopped inside a few homes for those who were not able to come out. Still others came out on the lawn and joined along while others rolled their families out and thanked us for bringing to them some cheer during the Christmas season. We wanted to establish something fun and exciting that everyone in the community could take part in. We believe that music is a great way to give individuals cheer and merriment during the holidays and we wanted to promote a kind selfless act. As a result, we were well-received by everyone and plan to do it the next year on a greater scale.	0	100
