Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

---

The reason we are filing this return late is because we were unaware that we had to file each year on form 990. We thought that if the organization only received so much or little in funds each year that we only had to do sort of a check-in every few years. We now since realized this was not the case and have been filing for each year consecutively after we finish the prior one to submit them all, so that by the time year 2021 comes we will have the ball rolling going forward and will not file late again. We do apologize for our ignorance on the matter, but we are working quickly to rectify the matter and provide all necessary information required.

Primary Exempt Purpose

---

RAX Worldwide's primary exempt purpose is to fundraise enough monetary support or receive donations to sponsor expungement events, community clean-ups, giveaways, contribute to job creation, community development, fundraisers, special events, budget building, expansion and to incorporate programs as part of our effort such as Trash is Treasure, Disaster Relief/Relocator, Refining Generations - Etiquette Classes, and Expansion League. RAX is also seeking and challenging others in an effort to pay off Sallie Mae (Student Loan Debt) and to offer grants, scholarships and fellowships to students and those seeking higher education and learning.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description*Description

began reaching out to our nonprofit to figure out how they could receive help. Some individuals were unable to make it to the event, others found out about it too late, and some left the event because they had previously scheduled events that they had to attend. We realized at this point that many individuals still had a pressing concern and need for expert assistance in navigating expungements. In 2015, we embarked on a quest to host an annual expungement event and move it around the state of Louisiana so that we could assist as many individuals as possible, en masse, whilst also being a facilitator between attorney and those in need of having their records expunged. In 2019, we wanted to bring to the public another event. We partnered with various private attorneys, with African American practices, to further aid in the efforts to promote expansion of successful minority businesses. We obtained the necessary paperwork from the community center to rent the building out for a few hours and got started on setting up the date, social sharing and broadcasting via the news. Overall, we had many to come out for assistance. Our events are such that they run between 9/10:00am - 2:00pm. We close our doors at 2:00. Anyone who has come inside before then will receive assistance so long as they stay. Even with hundreds of people in attendance, our lawyers were finished no later than 5:00pm. No one was turned away and individuals who could not make it were told how they could receive assistance going forward. For individuals who were hungry this time around, and due to the inconsistency of particular eateries being available, RAX Worldwide decided for all future events that we would cater by fixing plates for individuals in attendance (Jambalaya with Baked Chicken and a side of green beans or salad). This way we would be able to keep the food warm, have control over sanitation, and also have consistency for those who are hungry during our events and prefer not to leave the site. This was important to RAX as one of the concerns became people's stomachs and them having to leave to get food, but not wanting to lose their place in line. Our plates are purchased at a fair price along with a drink and all proceeds go towards our next RAX events, however, for this event all persons who came to RAX wanting a plate received one along with a cold drink. All lawyers who assist and Board Members in attendance all receive lunches with a drink provided by RAX Worldwide. We appreciate their commitment to helping us facilitate a much needed change for individuals still stigmatized by records that keep them from obtaining careers and many don't know their options. The events to this date have been successful with no one being unruly at the events, and individuals waiting until called to be assisted with their matters. We keep all names and identities or any identifying information confidential and we do not disclose any information to third parties or to the public. The only information that is forwarded or disclosed are the names and numbers of lawyers that individuals can contact when they reach out to us for assistance. To keep these events going we solicit donations from the public with a goal to fundraise in the future and collaborate with city and state officials to help expedite the process for low level offenses and offenses that are 20 years or older.
